"Joshua is a strong blend of Folk and Soul. Like a white, folky John Legend." - Plutonic Music Group, UK.

A Nashville-based songwriter, his music has been featured in films, on TV and he's recorded, billed, shared the stage across the nation with many greats, including Prince and The Mowgli's.

A Short BIO

As a songwriter, producer, and recording artist, his old-soul simple lyricism, old-school song forms, paired with a recording style that is current yet organic, come together to form a unique and refined quality that is atypical of modern recordings.

Joshua has shared the stage with many greats such as Prince, The Mowgli's, Anna Nalick (hit song, "Breathe(2am)"), The Tokens ("The Lion Sleeps Tonight"), Sam Bradley (featured in Twilight soundtrack), Deron Johnson (Miles Davis, Seal, Alanis Morissette, Stanley Clark), Gary Novak (Chick Corea, Allan Holdsworth, Robben Ford), Chris Pierce (KCRW, BB King), The Northstar Session (NBC's Parenthood), Lelia Broussard (featured Rolling Stone top 8 indie artist for cover). You can hear Joshua on the October 26, 2011 Episode of "The Young and The Restless" (CBS) singing "Our Time Has Come" by David Kurtz. "Our Time Will Come" was nominated for an EMMY in 2012.

He has also worked with songwriters, Jeff Silbar (Grammy for Song of the Year for "The Wind Beneath My Wings" Bette Midler, triple platinum selling "China Girl" John Cougar Mellencamp, quadruple platinum "Goodnight Sleepytime Man" Kenny Rogers, #1 single for Alabama, and many others including Sheena Easton, Gladys Knight, Dolly Parton, Poco, Willie Nelson), Andrea Remanda (Jewel, Mary J Blige, Aretha Franklin, Cheryl Cole, Bryan Adams, Kylie Minogue, Tom Jones, Brian McFadden, Meatloaf), Andreao "Fanatic" Heard (Grammy winning "Speechless" Beyonce, Michael Jackson, Notorious B.I.G., Will Smith, Lil Kim).

"Smith's sultry and quivering voice is sure to seduce and impress"

Flavorpill

"JT and Robin only wish they were gifted enough to transform sultry folk melodies and lush R&B rhythms into the comfort and expressiveness of sensual blues-inspired rock and soul."
